THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

SCRIPTURE: Genesis 1:26-27; Matthew 5:14; 12:9-13; 18:1-6, 12-14; 1 Peter 1:16.

DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 8.

You Are Important

Lesson for July 1, 1951

YOU are important! Whoever you are, wherever you live, whatever you do, you are important to others, to yourself and to God. You are the one and only "you" you will ever be; you have but one life to live, one destiny to fulfill, one soul to save.

Dr. Foremen

The Sunday schools of America are going to put in the rest of this summer studying Christian teachings about human relationships; and we begin, this week, by looking at a basic principle which underlies all of the Christian view of life and its relationships. No other teaching of the Bible will do you much good if you can't believe this simple truth; the incomparable importance of each individual person in the whole world.

• • •

In The Image of God

HOW does the Bible teach the importance of the individual?

First of all, by declaring that man was made in the image of God. In spite of man's sinfulness, even in the shabbiest and meanest of men there is still some trace of the image of God.

John Calvin, as is well known, was far from optimistic about the nature of man; but even Calvin wrote that the only good reason why we should love our enemies and do good to the undeserving, is that even in the worst of men there is still the image of God, so that what we do for any man we are really doing for the God whose image is in him.

Every man is in some sense a fresh creation. Widely used child's catechism asks the question: Who made you? And the answer is, God made me and all things. Every one has the right to give that answer to that question.

• • •

Bought With Blood

ANOTHER reason why we believe that every individual is important is summed up in what St. Peter said (I Peter 1): We have been redeemed—that is, ransomed, bought back—with what is more precious than jewels or gold, the "precious blood of Christ."

Does this mean only those who are now Christians? Surely not. You have a right to say to any man, anywhere: Christ died for you. If you cannot say that, then you are reduced to saying, Christ died for a limited number of people, and for anything I know to the contrary, you may be one of them.

That is a puny sort of gospel. If there is one thing which every evangelical church teaches with universal enthusiasm, it is that the gospel is offered freely to all. If there is one verse in the New Testament that sums up the gospel it is John 3:16: God so loved the world . . . that whosoever believeth . . .

That is no limited gospel. And no one who takes it seriously can look with scorn on any living soul. Jesus has warned us against scorning even a child. Isaac Watts once let a non-Christian idea get into one of his hymns—"for such a worm as I"! That is not a Scriptural idea. Christ did not die for worms, he died for men.

• • •

If So, Then What?

MOST Christians do not need even as much argument as this to make them believe in the worth of the individual; they are sufficiently convinced by the attitude of Jesus himself. Nobody could think seriously about Jesus' treatment of children, or his parables about the lost sheep and the lost son, without coming to the same conclusion.

The key-question always is: What is this action, this attitude, this plan, this arrangement, this institution, this system,—what is this doing to persons?

Persons are more important than anything else in the world. This by no means goes without saying. For the world of our time is riddled and raddled with other and contrary ideas: as for instance that man is only an animal, or that he is simply the highest of the simals, or that a man's value comes from his family, or his race, or his bank account.

Against all these mistaken views the Christian must stand, firmly knowing that he, no more than others but no less, is made in God's image and an object of God's love; and so in himself, small though his place may be not only has a value that can never be described in dollars, but is worth more than the human race can ever own.

Card of Thanks:

We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to our friends for their many deeds of kindness and expressions of sympathy during the illness and death of our loved one.

—The O. C. Paulette Family.

In Memoriam:

A tribute of love and devotion to the sacred memory of our dear husband and father and son and brother, Herbert Gordon Lucado, and Herbert Gordon Lucado, Jr., who departed this life suddenly one year ago today, June 25th, 1950.

Sorrow has filled this home of ours,
The sunlight is never bright;
The days are long,
And seem never to pass,
Since God called you home one day.
The blow was heavy,
The shock severe;
To you death was not
Something to fear.
But only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell
Gone from this world
Of grief and sorrow,
Where you always gave your best;
God has taken you, dear loved ones,
To a land of peace and rest.
Although your souls
Are now at rest,
And free from care and pain;
This world would seem like heaven,
If I had you back again.

—Devoted Wife and Mother, Daughter and Sister.

News Around Town

By Mrs. Calvin Robinson

A mother was having a hard time convincing her five-year old daughter that a daily bath was healthful. Finally she decided to appeal to the young lady's vanity.

"A daily bath will give you a beautiful figure," she coaxed. Then, reading the little girl's skeptical look, she questioned:

"Don't you believe me?"

"Yes," the little lady promptly replied. "Only, Mother, have you had a good look lately at a duck."

News of interest: The Appomattox School Cannery will open Thursday July 5, at 8:00 A. M.

The Rev. and Mrs. R. Carl Maxwell joined by three of the Maxwell's cousins, of Staunton, left on Wednesday for Lake Junaluska, N. C. where they will attend a camp meeting and Bible lectures June 28 through July 8.

Misses Emma and Lucy Smith, Mrs. H. B. Pack and son, Brod, are spending a ten-day vacation at Natural Bridge.

R. L. Burke celebrated his birthday Monday. We wish him as many more as he has had.

Little Watkins Abbitt, Jr. reported to me that he had corn for lunch Monday which was grown in their garden. Pass the corn, Watt!

Mrs. Josie Ferguson and daughter, Jo Ella will leave Friday for Baltimore, where they will join Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Martin for a trip to Niagara Falls. Mrs. J. D. Hawkins will accompany them as far as Buffalo, N. Y., where she will visit friends.

Horace Martin, U. S. Navy, stationed at Chincoteague Island, was home for the week-end.

The Henry Turnes Clan will hold its annual reunion at Hollywood on Sunday, July 1.

I am still trying to get Father Darkleaf to put into type an account of our recent journey to the Eastern Shore country. He gets contrary at times!

Dr. and Mrs. C. G. O'Brien and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. O'Brien and two sons, Mr. and Mrs Gus Torrence and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schweizer and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schlenkerman motored to Buggs Island Dam on Sunday.
